

REPUBLIC MORTGAGE INSURANCE COMPANY

November 15, 2017

To Our Customers:

On October 18, 2017, Republic Mortgage Insurance Company and its affiliate, Republic Mortgage Guaranty Insurance Corporation (formerly known as Republic Mortgage Insurance Company of North Carolina) (collectively, the "Companies"), provided notification that the North Carolina Department of Insurance ("NCDOI") had scheduled a hearing on November 2, 2017 for the purpose of considering the Companies' Petition to Allow a Discretionary Payment of Investment Income to Policyholders in Regards to Previously Outstanding Deferred Payment Obligations (the "petition"). On November 9, 2017, subsequent to the hearing, the NCDOI issued its final order approving the petition. The Final Order, the Notice of Hearing, and the Companies' petition are accessible on our website at www.rmic.com.

No later than December 8, 2017 we will remit to each policyholder their respective payments, accompanied by a detailed listing of the claim settlements that were subject to the DPO requirement and the amount of investment earnings attributable to each.

If you have further questions please contact us at DPO_Reporting_RMIC@rmic.com or Ray Foti at 336.661.4168 or Cynthia McGee at 336.661.4260.

Sincerely,

Kevin J. Henry
